HOPKINSVILLE, JULY 1, 1879. County Politics.

The Democratic Executive Commit tce has been without a Chairman for several months. In the absence of such an officer the duties of that office de v olve on the Secretary, Mr. S. M for June 28, to endorse a suitable car didate for the Senate and to take such other action as scemed best for the party's interest. Every one knows that "such other action," etc., referred to the propriety of endorsing a candidate for the Legislature. The convention was held according to call. There were only 26 voters in that convention. About 22 of these were residents of Hopkinsville, while four or when the fact is established.

A Northwest assert that the practical law of any nation has ever when the fact is established.

If this is to be taken as true, some through any ignorance on the part of the actor, yet, charity and philanthrough the country. The convention of the fact is established. five were from the country. The convention endorsed Dr. Prewitt for the Senate but by a vote of 13 to 11 decided to make no nomination for the pens to hold a mortgage on the "Purlower House, It is evident that, an chase." His late expose of political makes every issue desirable.

dive is $80,000,000. Since his abdication the country should not be at all surprised to hear at any moment that he will edit a newspaper.

The recent re-establishment of dicommon run of Chicagoans.

the fact that G. Swain Buckley, the "cone where the good old niggers go."

stone laying and unvailing of monuments is likely to assume a formidaan amateur base ball nine be induced to act as referee?

The Khedive and Khedivist have Towfik Khedive Jr. The old man retires on a competency of $450,000,000 due to England and other small creditors.

An exchange remarks; "One girl at the gate is worth a dozen in an ice cream saloon," as If there could be no probability of even her saying Iscream, when the chance came to sauce her.

Weber, the plane manufacturer after amassing $750,000 out of the home trade in his instruments has gone on a dead head pass to drum up trade in the unmapped country. His life was one of grand, square, upright character.

Telegraphic reports from responsible officials in twelve important couthern towns disclose no indications of an outbreak of yellow fever this summer. Those good people were last year chastened and so the Lord loves them this.

The ring of the sledge hammer, the toue of the farm bell and the blast of faith is true martyrdom, but for on the hog horn each chime in that chorus of our States' growing wealth, while hushed in that melody is the mate idiocy. Be this an inscription discordant bray of the political jack- on the whited sepulchre of young

Congress will probably adjourn at an early day. To paraphrase Mr. Watterson's advice, the long nosed, shearyfied, batter-taced, Ethiopian, unforgotten, turkey-trodden son of son-cocks might, could, WOULD or SHOULD "come home."

can stand. Demon-strable fete.

failed to recommend the nomination ployment is cut off by the depression of McCreary as Judge of the Eighth Circuit, on the ground of anticipating a vacancy, but hints of favorable ac- by the depression, to men who know owned by a gentleman of this county, has just won a noted race at Toledo, the privilege of dying on French soil. self behind the dignified clock of sifortunate family should contend for This is well. The Christian religion give a special lecture on ducling.

Advices to the New York Commerwhen the fact is established.

Just now uncle Oscar Turner happens to hold a mortgage on the "Pur-

The ability with which it is edited the fact that this State will go overwhelmingly for Democracy hereafter.

while others to hear from are prevorce in France only goes to establish sumed to have each a head as big as the railer at all things Godly. And the fact that a Frenchman has as keen a bee gum. The Press Convention yet the leader of men. How truly a taste for the luxuries of life as the will meet at Ashland, in June, next. fitting the remark of the late Judge

To those who delight in hunting, noted minstrel, has parted himself in published, will be of incalculable is the consummation of human folly." the middle, left his bones behind and pleasure. It contains 921 pages, sey. This noted man now sleeps the sleep ble rivalry. Can not some captain of the rod. is invaluable. The price of is a living specimen of folly consumthe book is $3.

This extra session of Congress is Grant. When, six weeks ago, it was thought that the extra session would adjourn the first of June, Mr. Grant gave out that he would return about the 25th of July. But no, can't do it now. The session holds, his friends therein can't leave to meet him in California and groom the boom, and so Mr. Grant writes that he will not arrive from Japan until about the first of September. Naughty Democrats, these extra sessioners.

A special dispatch to the Cincinnat Gazette, from Flemingsburg, where depositions in the Green vs. Hargis suit are being taken, says that Judge Andrews awears that he signed Mr. Hargis' liceuse to practice law at the August term of the Rowan Circuit Court, and that if the license shows any other date it is a forgery. It is a fact that the license does show a different date, and that Judge Andrews shares the full-fledged confidence of the people of his district.

To lose one's own life through advocacy of any great moral or religious to take his own life on account o disappointment in love is consum Porter, of Spring Hill, Tenn., who re turned to his room the other night at 12 o'clock and celebrated his discardal by carefully whizzing a bullet to his

Wholly wrong, Mr. Beecher. Late this idea of grand centralization of observation teaches us that to drink power in the National Government on a full stomach is more of an Emet- by the Republicans, and after ably hie than even an elongated Dutchman disposing of other points in the Republican catechism, he concluded by tion of members of the senior class of appealing for the support of the State that institution. The Senate Judiciary Committee ticket to the wageman, whose employment is cut off by the depression of values; to the debtors and tax-payers, whose burdens are doubled by the depression, to men who know brought smit for $20.000 damages to a vacancy, but hints of favorable action when the proper time arrives a change tends to reform abuses; to for supplying the vacancy that will those who love free government; to the soldiers of the Union army, who in good taste, after all. fought to make the South abide by The Greenbackers held a conven- the Constitution, and are themselves

Man-worship.

Christian world shudders when the subject of Heathen Gods is Republicans Raising a Fund agitated. When the thoughtless sin-ner recklessly descants on the wisdom of that religion as compared with Christianity, the churchman of Not one of the Napoleons has had to-day stands aghast and hiding himence refuses serious discussion their rights, and get Mark Twain to is of too unmistakable purity to be weighed in a counter scale with heathern idolatry. The worship of golden calves and statues of stone by thropy demand a palliation of the penalty. So much prepares us for another phase of the point at issue. Observe the signs of our own lead the blind.

But to go further. Not only do we find these good followers bowing down to others in point of religious -104 grains in one head of wheat. faith, but also in a moral and politi-The Madisonville Times is in with cal sense. Why take the case of 128 grains in one head. The Muhl-enberg Echo has something that just gaudy, sacreligious Senator, a concan't be beaten, and wants a call, ceited cowardly man. The peacock of the Senate, the dunghill of courage, Chalmers, of Southern Virginia, who when being accused of cowardice, refishing and other game sports, HAL- plied, "the fear of God is the begin-LOCK's Sportsman's Gazetter, just ning of wisdom, but the fear of man eral fine maps, a glossary and a di- that knows no waking, though his rectory to over 4,000 of the principal memorable words still five to haunt gaming spots of this country. Its Roscoe Conkling to his grave. information on guna, dogs, &c., in- in that Mr. Conkling fears not God cluding its exhaustive treatment of he is a fool, in that he fears Lamar he

But to draw ourselves closely to the subject of man-worship, have we not seen that certain huras that in church courts all things bend to the majesty of certain learned ones? In fine, are they not rulers of men and disguised recipients of manworship? Enough of such, unless it were born of a less selfish motive on the part of the recipients of such hon-

In politics all is considered fair. To the victor belongs the spoils. But do not the American people sillily bow down to men made prominent through different causes? Is it not disgusting to say the least of it that ensible men of whatever sect, na-cionality or lik should follow blindly the dictates of any one man and thus be guilty of as gross folly as was the heathen of old in devoutly kneeling at the feet of a stone statue?

KENTUCKY NEWS

A corporation has been formed for ebuilding the Phoenix Hotel, in Lex-

Elizabethtown has voted to sell her 3500 shares of stock in the Louisville and Nashville Bailroad.

Dr. H. A. M. Henderson has been elected President of Kentucky Wes-leyan Female College, at Millersburg.

Examination of witnesses in the Green-Hargis libel suit is being conducted at Flemingaburg and depositions being taken.

Whether Louisville shall sell he 18,000 shares in the L. & N. road is a question to be decided by her voters at an early day. Discussion runs modeled into a first class theatre. high in that city.

At a roll call of the veterans of the

from his visit to Auspolis, where, under a commission from the Presi-

Miss Emma Vaders, the actres

Bowling Green will vote at th

"LITTLE FRAUD."

to Support Greenback Papers.

Hubbell. Chairman of the Repub lican Congressional Committe. Takes Oscar Turner for Robertson, Chairman of the Repub-lican Executive Committee, of Ohio, and asku him for funds to carry on the Greenback War in Kontucky.

"Oscar, with his flery fall, Threshed to atoms all Donerall,"

The following letter from Conreseman Oscar Turner explains itself. The facts embraced furnish sad read-

Senate but by a vote of 13 to 11 decicled to make no commitation for the press to hold a mortgage on the "Purlower House. It is evident that, an account of the wheat harvest, that the wire-working is worth just exactly country people have been barred the privilege of expressing themselves on this subject. Then, in order to show that proper respect for the Democraty, it absolutely behoves the acting chairman to call a convenition to decide this important matter at an early day. The masses of the Democraty througheut the county are in favor of making a nomination, and this construction, and the county are inforced for the county are informed for the county are inforced for the county are informed for the county are informed for the county are informe ing to not a few :

WEEKLY REVIEW.

Indiana has the best wheat cros Cox, the murderer of Mrs. Hull, has been formally indicted. Tobacco is frenching badly in parts of Henderson county. There were 1,730 conflagrations

Russia during the mouth of May. Col. Alston, the lately murdere Georgian is to have a monument. The English Government has 500 yice.

The case of Curric, who killed the actor, Porter, in Texas has been con-

The Swiss Chamber has anthorized in increased duty on tobacco and al-has just made $65,000 in mining stocks. Don and Simm Cameron have two hundred acres of tobacco to cultivate this year. Fernan lo Wood has gone to Europe.

The Demogratic State convention of Maryland, will be held in Balti more August 7th.

The President has approved the army appropriation bill and vetoed the judical expenses bill.

The insurrection in Algeria is ended and four thousand insurgents are in he hands of the French.

The court of Austria has gone into mourning for ten days, on account of the death of the Prince Imperial of France.

The schooner Cummins, arrived a New York from Paris, reports the loss of the Captain and two seamen from yellow feyer.

The Khedive of Egypt has refuse to abdicate his throne in obedience to a peremptory demand from England, Germany and Austria.

There is a movement in England to mild a monument to the late Prince Imperial of France, slaughtered in English service by the Zulus.

According to the National Zeitung Russia is endeavoring to form a coali-tion with Turkey and France against England, Austria and Germany.

The directors of the Imperial Bank of Germany have adopted a resolution that an increase of the silver coinage of Germany is imperatively necessary.

The spacious Unitarian church, corner of Olive and Ninth streets,

The cold blooded murder of Mrs General Ewing is opening a brilliant campaign in Ohlo. His remarks offered in response to a seronade in Columbus the other night are ringing and clear. After cutting to!the quick this idea of grand centralization of Genl. Eli H. Murray has returned Hull of New York, last week has been war of 1812, at Paris last June, 35 identified by a newspaper reporter in in Boston, arrested and confessed the crime. He is a negro originally from fact that at their meeting there last month only 17 were present.

Genl. Eli H. Murray has returned Powhatan county, Virginia and named Cox. No accomplies are assibelle of

A statement by the Commercial Agency of R. G. Dunn & Co. shows that in Kentucky, for the first half of the year 1878 there were 111 busi-1879 there were only 73 failures involving a liability of $763,884. So we may conclude that times are improving in Kentucky.

Twelfth Annual Convention of Kentucky Editors.

Speeches, Poems, Toasts and Dancing up to the very mouth of Mammoth Cave.

Bowling Green-The Banquet.

The twelfth annual convention of to and from the Convention. The been appreciated by Kentuckians as majority of those present arrived in the city Wednesday evening. Mr. E. H. Porter, of the Pantagraph, and Lieut. Governor Underwood having bering our Breckinridge as a soldier, of the citizens, delivered a most John E. Hatcher. whole-souled welcoming address to the quillers. He consumed about merry makers in the city warned all twenty minutes, and, throughout, his that the eloquent and feelinged remarks were greeted with hearty satisfaction and the power of his eloquence which was on this occasion afforded the Kentucky editors will readily agree, that though young in years his power ranks with the foremost men of the State. To this address the Hon. J. the association, of which he is President, replied, gracefully acknowledging in our behalf the kindness extend-ed. His remarks were well-timed and delicately appropriate. At three o'clock the Association was called to order for the purpose of dispatching certain business be fore it. Legal advertising was discussed at length. It was finally agreed that a committee of thirteen, appointed by the President, abould meet in Frankfort during the third week after the assembling of the next Legislature, for the purpose of framadopted by that body. Discussion developed the fact that in nearly every northern State and in many hall where all went merry as a mar outhern such legal advertising laws riage bell, are in existence as do practically protect the interests of widows, orphans, minors, &c., from the speculations of unprincipled shavers, traders and scalpers. Some such law, wisely tramed, in this State would be a com-that the measure can be put through the next Legislature.

THURSDAY NIGHT. The literary and musical entertain ment at Odeon Hall was the feature of the evening. Prof. W. F. Kouwas the overture, "Crown Diamond." by Kerker's Orchestra.

The annual address, immediately succeeded, and in this roll, Mr. G. C. TUCKIAN rested from his revelry Matthews performed his part with great credit to himself and to ters at the Potter House, where the the association. His subject was "The polite clerk, Mr. Charlie Horrell Reporter." Mr. Matthews is about makes all things agreeable. Then at 8 twenty-two years old. He holds a o'clock, together with other memstaff of the Courier-Jou nal, and is Mammoth Cave. Sunday was profiregarded by the profession as a young tably spent therein. God's wonder man of remarkable talent and of discriminating judgment. To discard the usual style of sickly gush coramon to most criticism, his effort was a happy success. Throughout the entire address every word seemed fitted to its place with a mathematical nicety and every sentence abounded with the freshest, purest odor of deliency. He is loved by the press of Kentucky, and the Courier-Journal should feel proud of his mental physique.

Maj. Wm. Obenchain sang "The Raft." He has a mellow, full voice. Miss Jeanie Blackburn, the beautiful brunette, rendered exquisitely, "O Luce di Quest Anima." So favorably was this piece received that the suraptured audience peremptorily encored her, to which she responded with grace and siren-ity, "Robin tion in Bowling Green yesterday to nominate a candidate for the Senate. If the leaders of the Democratic party ide not look in the consultation is will not be a matter of much time before trouble over takes us from this source. Remember this caution.

Miss Lilly Hughes, a charming balle of Bowling Green, next sang

The Greenbackers held a convention, and are themselves obedient to it, who are generous enough to allow the South to enjoy the State Agricultural and Mechanical we enjoy, who, after saving the Union it will not be a matter of much time before trouble over takes us from this source. Remember this caution.

The Constitution, and are themselves obedient to it, who are generous going $30,000 for the location of the State Agricultural and Mechanical we enjoy, who, after saving the Union by sufferings and sacrifices, have been before trouble over takes us from this source. Remember this caution.

The streets of Princeton are now in abound in its verses, and, taken for all and all, considering the political bent of brother Faxon's ambition, to sold by our railroad. Several of the gether with his exciting personal race for the Legislature in his county, the deliver addresses.

The Streets of Princeton are now in abound in its verses, and, taken for all and all, considering the political bent of brother Faxon's ambition, to sold by our railroad. Several of the gether with his exciting personal race for the Legislature in his county, the deliver addresses.

"ON A BENDER." His forte, though, is to edit a live preciates the sincere candor of our

> The morning was spent in visiting the beautiful reservoir which, con-FRIDAY. taining a million of gallons, supplies the city with water of the purest and freshet character. It is nearly two hundred feet above the city and is filled by machinery on the banks of Barren river, a mile off.

The cemetery is a place of interest in the city. It contains about fifty acres and is beautifully plotted out and dressed with evergreens and

The Fire Department of the city gave a public exhibition of its alert-ness and proficiency, and it must be conceded that it excells our own by

At four o'clock a called meeting of the association passed resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Kentucky editors was held in Bowl-ing Green last week. There were also delivered a beautiful tribute to about one hundred members of the his memory, which caused tears to press present. Arrangements were flow from the eyes of many grief effected with the different lines of stricken veterans of the press. The railroad to transport delegates free fact is John E. Hatcher hus never conducted them to hospitable homes tail to remember the modest merits in the city. At 12 o'clock Thursday, of him who deserves the fullest honthe Hon. C. U. McElroy, on the part ors of journalism, the late lamented

BALL AND BANQUET would be the most enjoyable featcomplimentary applause. Mr. Mc- ure of the whole programme. At Elroy is a young man, probably thirty, nire o'clock an immense crowd, for though his chances for being elected the most part attired in the latest hato the speakership of the next State biliments of fashion, had assembled Legislature are none the less narrow- at Getty's Hall. The music being Steady and ed by his youthful appearance. Those well timed brought "fair women and who have had the opportunity to feel brave men" to their tip toes and thur enjoyably went the ball in motion until twelve o'clock, when the guests retired to Odeon Hall to partake of the overflowing hospitality of the beautiful gas-lit Park City. Full five hundred assembled around the festal Stoddard Johnston, on the part of board and imbibed of these convivial sweets calculated to expand the bright side of nude adversity. Fish, flesh, fow!, fun, flowers and cham paign filled the cup of our joy to its overflowing brim and then all the world was our friend and Bowling 37 000 Claims Green the keeper of the sacred seal. Never was a more sumptuous feast spread for man, and to say that all things were served in a style other than royal would be to impugu the merited celebrity of one of the sweet. est, most generous, most cultivated of our sisters—that city long to be fondly remembered by every meming a suitable advertising bill to be ber of the press-that hospitable borough, Bowling Green. After the banquet, we returned to the dance

Till broad day light, And went home with the girls in At eight o'clock quite a large crowd

mon blessing to those at the mercy of executors, administrators, &c., and it would mark the era of another step the River. A large barge was atfor the especial purpose of dance ex-cursions, being covered with canvaand the floor waxed. Two bands of music was in attendance and day was thus pleasantly spent on the bosom of the waters. Another wendergh, music director, deserves magnificent banquet was tendered and freely accepted. Dinner was and the low premium charged makes elegantly prepared—wines, fruits &c. ACCIDENT INSURANCE being abundant. SATURDAY EVENING the representative of the South KEN few moments at his comfortable quarful works there furnish a good text for an all day sermos, and to those who have never seen this grander we would devoutly advise a visit to this the greatest feature in the history and make up of Kentucky. Many pleasant accquaintances wer formed on this delightful trip, each of whom shall be remembered carefully until our next reunion at Ashland, in 1880.

Sebree Springs.

This famous summer resort has passed into the hands of Mr. B. D. Bailey, who has, at considerable expense, thoroughly repaired and refitted the hotel and buildings and resisted the hotel and buildings and resource. furnished them in modern style. A free bus will be run every hour during the day to the Chalybeate Springs. A splendid quadrille band has been engaged for the entire season, and taken for all in all, no place in the State of the control of the season. in the State will furnish a more com fortable and happy home for the cou-ing season. The virtues of Sebre water are too well known to need an A statement by the Commercial Agency of R. G. Dunn & Co. shows that in Kentucky, for the first half of the year 1878 there were 111 business failures, envolving a liability of 1879 there were only 73 failures involving a liability of 1879 there were only 73 failures involving a liability of 1879 there were only 73 failures involving a liability of 1879 there were only 73 failures involving a liability of 1879 there were only 73 failures involving a liability of 1879 there were only 73 failures involving a liability of 1879 there were only 73 failures involving a liability of 18763,884. So we may conclude that times are improving in Kentucky.

The Press Poem, delivered by Col. Len G. Faxon, of the Paducanh News, was next listened to. The poem has already been produced in most of the papers, and we hope to do likewise one of the events looked for this seafer the rush of our trip has settled into quietude. It is peculiar in style. Mirth, jest, sobriety and wit each abound in its verses and the cach and the pleasant retreat are accisable. The class of people who usually attend this pleasant retreat are accisable. The class of people who usually attend the places of the kind frequently fashion rules the day. Mr. Balley assures us of his intention to keep as good a table as any house in the State, and will extend to all who may visit him a genuine Kentucky welcome. A party from our city to Sebrea is one of the events looked for this seafer the rush of our trip has settled into quietude. It is peculiar in style. Mirth, jest, sobriety and wit each abound in its verses and the cach are too well knows of disease, and nervous prostration. The class of people who usually attend the pleasant retreat are accisable. The class of people who nevals as a constant the class of disease, and nervous prostration. The class of disease, and nervous p

His forte, though, is to edit a live newspaper and we trust that he appropriates the single control of the sin

Will happen.

THE

TRAVELERS'

Hartford, Conn.

THE PIONEER

OF AMERICA,

-AND THE-

LARGEST IN THE WURLD

During Fifteen Years

Substantial Growth, Has Issued Over

550.000

Gen'r'l Accident Policies.

Has Paid Over FOR DEATH Total Disability

WASHINGTON, D. C.

hysician and Surgeon

Occarring in the ordinary avocation of life, such as SLIPS AND FALLS Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Horse and Carriage Accidents, Strokes of Lightning, Bites of Dogs. Cats, Spiders and Snakes, Railroad Accidents Etc.

The Cheapest in the WORKLID.

To the Merchant, Banker, Lawyer, Clergyman, Baleman, Mechanic Farmer or Gentleman of Leisure, ACCIDENT INSURANCE s as necessary as Fire Insurance providing as it does a

Weekly Indemnity $50 per Week $1.000 to $10.000

In case of death by accident. The records of the company show

ONEPERSON every sixteen

Of the 560,000 Policy Holders, the amounts ranging from one dollar to No one can tell when an acciden will happen and the only way to pro-Accident Policy

RODNEY DENNIS, Secretary

SLIGHT HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

Goo

1 0

Dress Ladies Suits. Laces,

Crimming stock is oidered Underwe sion Call and I. DINKELSPEEL MOI

> NEW COAL YARD. W. H. WEST & CO.,

Hopkinsville, Ky., bars opened a new coal yard at G. W. Means old yard will self the very lest Fleming Coal, at leaved prices Hig stock constantly on hand. Coal delivered promptly in the cits.

W. H. WEST & CO.

NEOTROPHIAN FEMALE SCHOOL. Mrs. Bramham and Mrs. Patton

ASSOCIATE PRINCIPALS. Fall Term begins Sept. 1st, 1879. Instruction in music, French, and all the branches usually taught in first class. Acade-mics. For particulars inquire of either Prin-cipal.

Dissolution Notice.

H HE from known as Metcalfe A Ailen had been dissulved by mutual consent, Mr. O. Allen retiring, and Dr. T. C. Reynolds, burying purchased the reunant of the shock of Drug-and Groceries from Dr.Mctealfe, will continue and Groceries from tradition of the Brug testiness. Hy, May, 1870.

HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

President. NEW THROUGHOUT.

The Phoenix Hotel Corner Main and Nashville Sta. HOPKINSVILLE, - - - KY.

Table supplied with all the delication Elegantly Furnhedis

Everything Neat, Orderly & Attractive, Board & Lodging $2 per day

Public patronage respectfully solicited, M. W. Grissam. C. M. LACY, Proprietor.

m Clerk, milion saloeo MASHVILLE STREET EMPORIUM Ike Hart

Dry Goods, Notions.

Hosiery, Etc. GROUGHES sold as low as the lowest.

Highest market price paid for WOOL.

Tour for each and can sell as low as any nouse in Hopkinsville. The ladies are respectfully invited to examine my stock.

Very respectfully, it KE HAKT.

Mancion: Nashville strees (near Depot.)

2.000 ASTARS FOR A DELIABLE